HAPPY TIMES at PLAY

Starting time

We Enroll

September 15 . . . enrollment cards — prospects for semesters filled with excitement, exploration, fun . . . most important of all, the opportunity to learn — an adventure in itself . . . quick minutes of chosen courses . . endless hours of required subjects . . . all in the time ahead.

Creativeness without bounds . . . tangible moods and emotions . . . opportunities for expression . . . color, line, brightness and shadow . . . minor masterpieces in clay, water color, plastic, leather, metal. . . . the Art Department.

Rapidly moving fingers over machines . . . training and practice in office procedure . . . accuracy in product . . . knowledge of systematic ways of the business world . . . the cordial, efficient ways of a secretary . . . a preview of future experiences . . . the Business Education Department.

Mechanics of our language . . . culture from the past and the present . . . examination of the wisdom of the ages within the covers of books . . . expression of our thoughts . . . learning to speak . . . to think . . . to write, coherently, unfalteringly . . . the English Department.

Ruled by the measuring cup and the needle . . . attended by a tablespoon of flour and a button-hole maker . . . a nurse in her own home . . . learning the greatest job in the world — that of the homemaker — in the Home Economics Department.

Ties with other lands, other ways, other outlooks through another language . . . the key to new vistas . . . development of new tolerance, a new friendship . . . a logical road to culture and enlightenment . . . the Language Department.

Stories told by melodic moods . . . a shift of melody from the profound to the fantastic . . . the syncopation of changing tempos . . . harmonizing of voices raised in exultation . . . catering to the layman and the gifted individual . . . the Music Department.

A soldered connection . . . a welded seam . . . a mortised joint . . . a plan on paper . . . a carefully tuned engine . . . the creation of something useful . . . our handiwork . . . machines, tools, equipment . . . the Mechanic Arts Department.

Vigor and vitality . . . every boy his own athlete . . . instilling sportsman-like play through an understanding of the game, the way it is played . . . awareness of the need for physical fitness . . . the Boys' Physical Education Department.

The drive and energy of outdoor sports . . . perfect posture . . . freedom of mood and rhythm through coordination of body . . . the grace and movement of the dance . . . presentation in recital . . . the Girls' Physical Education Department.

The world of the atom and the test tube . . . the realm of the insect and the fish . . . the kingdom of the swinging pendulum and the algebraic equation . . . the Science-Mathematics Department.

To a great guy from a greater one.
Dennis Tedaro

The vast depository of our fascinating past . . . a realistic acquaintance with our heroes, our troubled beginnings, our hopes, sorrows, and achievements . . . an understanding of government and such modern problems as the courtesy of the road . . . a time machine of imagination . . . the Social Science Department.

The spoken expression of joy . . . the drama of tragedy . . . the thespians . . . eager to participate . . . the forceful words of argument . . . spoken downstage right . . . spoken in rebuttal . . . consciousness of the power of persuasion . . . the Speech Department.

Meetin' Time

A year of momentous undertakings, vital decisions . . . October 20 and the master design for Alhambra High School . . . approval of plans and bids for enlarging Mark Keppel . . . Crown City Ranch site and a new high school . . . sanctioning the Kiwanis-sponsored Vocational Guidance Day . . . election of teachers, selection of personnel, authorization of expenditures . . . a first and third Monday night part of the lives of five civic-minded people, primarily interested in youth—our Board of Education.

SUPERINTENDENT
GEORGE E. BETTINGER
DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT
MAURICE R. STOKESBARY

Conferences . . . calls from parents . . . creamed-chicken-and-green-pea club engagements . . . supervision of students, instructors, and non-certificated personnel . . . visits . . . a word of approval, of censure . . . crowding the busy hours of our general factotum, Principal Robert F. Gray.

Problems—truants, miscreants, and self-styled class "entertainers" . . . commission business . . . Boys' Federation . . . sports scheduling and supervision . . . C. A. S. C. . . . and even more pleasant experiences through the student activities . . . the varied responsibilities of Boys' Vice-Principal Gilbert Strother.

Never a dull moment . . . forgotten lunch money . . . Girls' League problems . . . clubs—academic, service, and national . . . Girls' State . . . conferences with students, parents . . . meetings—all a part of any Mildred Crosswhite day in the office of the Girls' Vice-Principal.

COUNSELORS MILLS, TURNBULL, STRICKLAND, and KEMP paused and posed during their busy day.

Counselling . . . an attempt to free us from our academic snares . . . the ideal of cooperation among parents, students, teachers, and the school throughout high school years . . . job information . . . choice of courses . . . testing programs . . . plans for the future.

WELFARE HEAD DELLA LEONARD and Assistant FRANK BISETTI discussed business at the car door.

Child Welfare . . . implications in a title . . . attendance records . . . work permits . . . adjustments to school routine . . . getting at the source of our problems . . . Della Leonard's and Frank Bisetti's belief in help, not punishment.

Time for Planning

That concerted drive for a clean campus . . . Commission painters and that heavenly, non-inflammable, trash-can blue . . . fun and real spirit at the football rallies . . . selection of the campus lovelies and election of the football queen . . . Open House and escorting parents for a change . . . adding the vital impetus to Christmas gift giving . . . finally, a magnificent winter prom, "Once Upon a Time".

Direct representation of every student . . . discussion and debate . . . motions, seconds, and amended motions . . . Joe Moor on the gym floor . . . pop at basketball games . . . student expression and participation in open meeting . . . the Student Legislature.

LEGISLATURE SPEAKER DICK SEIDEL ably conducted business with CLERK BERTA DURST'S help.

Painting was killing work.

Strong representative organization for promotion of girls' activities at Alhambra . . . a cordial welcome for new freshmen . . . willing slaves to carry books . . . food sales . . . attractive student models at the fashion show . . . leis for the senior tea . . . potluck for mothers and daughters . . . all-league convention for solution to common problems . . . the Girls' League.

An Olympic hero—a vaulting parson . . . stories about the thrill of the international games at Helsinki . . . button-bustin' pride during the flag raising . . . sportsmanship in a war-ravaged world . . . friendship through athletic competition . . . a presentation of the Boys' Federation.

MOOR ADVISER TAJIMA fretted over deadlines with EDITORS BARNBY (fall) and KAMER (spring).

A big paper (six pages) from a little room . . . product of hours of student and adviser work . . . embracing every facet of school life . . . the latest happenings from dances to sports, political news to gossip . . . the new custom car column . . . a review of the past week . . . a preview of events to come . . . the Moor.

Talking Time

DEBATE

Writing and memorizing . . . nights in the library leafing through dull magazines in small print . . . shortage of rubber bands . . . trips to all parts of California . . . meeting people . . . the hope of bringing home medals and trophies . . . our own tournament . . . inhospitably sweeping every event . . . Outstanding Debater trophy . . . fascinating fun in Debate? . . . yes!

Curtain Time

Struck with a new idea, BOB RYDER (Dexter), received the full approval of BARBARA BRICKEY (Corliss).

A nosey aunt, a diary of make-believe the basis of a confusion-filled plot of chaos and misunderstanding . . . high blood pressure . . . a home-brewed medicine . . . an English theme on the callousness of mother . . . the ever-faithful Dexter, the overly-imaginative Corliss . . . causing much trouble, having great fun . . . holy cow! . . . what a show! . . . Meet Corliss Archer.

Holy Cow!

Red or green? . . . red, of course . . . so near that graduation day, yet so far . . . W '54 . . . a class small in number . . . great in enthusiasm . . . looking ahead . . . to college, to careers, to greater responsibilities, maybe the service . . . looking back . . . memories, good times, other carefree days.

February products . . . nearly the last of a vanishing race . . . B 11's with thoughts of school ring orders . . . the remaining distance in the climb to eminence, the position of seniors . . . planning for the days ahead . . . B 10's . . . joining forces to enjoy the "Hobo Hop" and the picnic at Santa Anita Park . . . game night and the swim at the Y . . . B 9's . . . first attempt at organization . . . wonderful plans for the future . . . Winter Classes.

A Redheaded Time

WINTER COMMISSION
SUMMER PLAY

A dozen redheaded children . . . a domineering redheaded father . . . an understanding redheaded mother . . . a study of waste motion and the best ways of doing things . . . an uninterrupted series of humorous antics with an unexpected and inspiring moral . . . the natural, uninhibited movements of hammy canine, a wonderful trouper gone to his reward . . . "Cheaper By the Dozen" — a howling success . . . the product of long hours and hard work.

A11's . . . preparation for the Prom, the Coronation Ball . . . decorations, arrangements . . . interested listeners on Vocational Guidance Day . . . class rings . . . A10's . . . a peppy class, an enthusiastic adviser, a musical president . . . a bruising skating party, the "Hobo Hop", and a picnic . . . A9's . . . Alhambra's largest class . . . a Valentine Day dance, a rink party . . . getting ready to abandon the unenviable status of beginner . . . Summer Classes.

S '55 (sitting) Hooper. Row 2: Power (adv.), Nielson, Kuhns, Verdugo.

And

MR. GRAY carefully explained to those fallen angels, BURT STOKESBARY (Pete) and MIKE CLARKE (Sam), that most worthy Moors could expect to reach the Pearly Gates. All of us were grateful to those "angels" for their part in the production of a sparkling talent show, "Heavenly Music".

RESERVED FOR THAT MOST WONDERFUL LETTER FROM THAT MOST WONDERFUL PERSON.

A HAPPY VACATION

Thanks

MENGEL and ASHBURN'S

Combine to Bring You

exciting new Fleetwood!

- New Taffy Mahogany Finish
- Center-Guided Drawers
- Plate Glass Beveled Mirrors

It's new . . . it's exciting . . . and it's famous Mengel furniture that's long on looks, but O so short on price! 3 pieces complete: full size panel bed, 4-drawer chest and 6-drawer double dresser with 40x30 in. mirror.

Bed, Chest, and Double Dresser

$259.95

Here's Mary who has been job hunting ever since she graduated. She's spent a lot of time... She's talked with quite a few people...but she still hasn't found a job she really likes!

And this is Sally. She looked into telephone jobs for girls...and right after graduation she had a really good job...one that didn't require previous experience and paid well from the start.

So why don't you ask your job counselor at school to tell you more about the many advantages you'll find in telephone work...or come in and talk with one of the friendly employment counselors at Pacific Telephone!
